

One methodology for setting individual growth targets:

1. 100 (total possible points) $- 24$ (actual points scored on pre-assessment) = 76
2. $76 \times .50$ (growth target) = 38 points
3. $38 + 24 = 62$ points to reach expected growth
4. 62 is the expected growth target